Re: Confirmation of SAPSE Accreditation Requirements

I the undersigned, do hereby confirm that the MBALI Conference Proceedings complies fully with the SAPSE criteria for accreditation that ensures that every published proceedings paper will be awarded 0,5 SAPSE credit points by the DHET. In particular, the Conference Proceedings Committee has complied with the following requirements:

- The MBALI Conference Proceedings is registered with the National Library governing authority who issued an ISBN 9781868181490.
- Every paper published in the Proceedings is double peer-reviewed, the reviewers are established academics working at national and international tertiary institutions – a list is available upon request.
- The Managing Editor ensures that a mix of up to 60% (external) and 40% (internal) reviewed papers are included in the proceedings – this formula is a necessary requirement for accreditation in addition to the above two bulleted requirements.
- Visit our website (<http://mbali.unizulu.ac.za/>) to view our 2018 and 2021 accredited proceedings

Yours faithfully

Prof. I. Kaseeram

MBALI Proceedings Managing Editor

Deputy Dean Research & Internationalisation
